GREETINGS

Into the fellowship of Queens we welcome you.

We believe in our college and are determined that by our love and labor Queens will stand out as one of the great colleges of America.

The people who come to this college, students and faculty, determine the kind of college this will be. Queens can never rise higher than the quality of the persons on her campus. If they are selfish, narrow, faultfinding, the college amounts to little; but when they are true, strong, and fine, their school reaches out with an ever-widening influence.

During the coming year may we together build enduring friendships, train our minds to think accurately and creatively, and build into our personalities those abiding qualities of Christian character.

Together, each for all, and all for each, may we have the best year in our college's long history.

HUNTER B. BLAKELY, President.

Miss Thelma Albright
Dean of Students

THELMA ALBRIGHT,

FACULTY REGULATIONS

A. Attendance Upon Class and Other College Exercises:

1. Absences are recorded from the first day upon which classes meet. Students who register late incur class cuts from the first day of class meetings.

2. Absences from classes 48 hours immediately preceding or immediately following a holiday or vacation shall be recorded as triple.

3. For students who maintain a B average or above for the previous semester there shall be 6 absences each semester for a three-hour course, 4 for a two-hour course, 2 for a one-hour course. For students who maintain a C average the previous semester there shall be 4 absences for a three-hour course, 3 for a two-hour course, 2 for a one-hour course. For students maintaining a D average for the previous semester there shall be 3 absences for a three-hour course, 2 for a two-hour course, 1 for a one-hour course. For students who have been reported as failing in any subject, there will be no cuts permitted in that particular course.

During the first semester incoming freshmen shall be allotted absences on the same basis as students with a C average unless they are reported as failing in some subject; in which case they shall be classified as for absences of students with a D average.

No student will be penalized for excess absences due to prolonged illness. Such excuses must be acceptable to the committee on absences. No further absences from any class will be permitted during the semester.

4. Absences in excess of this number will result in the loss of quality points as follows: First excess cut: loss of one quality point. Second excess cut: loss of two additional quality points. Third excess cut: loss of three additional quality points. Fourth excess cut: loss of three additional quality points. Fifth excess cut: partial loss of course credit. Since 124 quality points are required for graduation excess absences should be avoided. Students should be careful to save these absences for unavoidable occasions, such as illness or other emergencies.

5. A fee of $3.00 will be charged for re-examination.

6. Three tardies are recorded as an absence.

7. Laboratories: No cuts are allowed in Laboratory sections. Absences caused by serious illness must be made up immediately. One shift may be permitted, provided it is made up within the week of the shift.

8. The absence committee of the faculty will interpret all exceptions to or violations of the absence regulations.

9. Dean's List: A Dean's List of unusually superior students will be announced each semester. These students are not subject to the attendance regulations; however, if any students are reported as abusing the privileges granted them, the faculty committee on absences may remove their names from the list.

10. Chapel Attendance:

a. Chapel attendance is regarded as having the same importance as class attendance. All students are expected to attend chapel.

b. Each student shall be allowed a maximum of seven chapel absences per semester. All students are expected to attend chapel on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Fridays; all freshmen and one-year business students also attend the Thursday chapels.

c. One quality point shall be deducted for each excess chapel absence.

d. Students with a perfect record of attendance at chapel will be assigned two extra quality points for the semester.

e. Students who do not have more than two chapel absences during the semester shall be awarded one extra quality point.

B. Quality Point System:

1. For graduation one must have 124 semester hours and 124 quality points. Three quality points are awarded for every semester hour of "A Grade"; two quality points for each hour of "B Grade"; one quality point for each hour of "C Grade"; no quality points for each hour of "D Grade"; one quality point is subtracted for each semester hour of failure.

2. Students receiving the one-year business certificates must achieve a minimum of 28 quality points of which ten must be in shorthand and typewriting.

3. For Sophomore Class standing a student must have 24 semester hours and 12 quality points; for Junior Class standing a student must have 54 semester hours and 30 quality points; for Senior Class standing a student must have 86 semester hours and 51 quality points.

C. Grading System:

2. B—Good student: She has a more thorough grasp of the subject than the C student. She can either reproduce the materials of the course accurately or reproduce them with a high degree of thoroughness and understanding. Carries 2 quality points per semester hour.

3. C—Average student: She understands the minimum essentials of the course well enough to reproduce them upon request. Carries 1 quality point per semester hour.

4. D—Poor student: She is below average in the comprehension and understanding of the minimum essentials of the course, but is not so poor as to merit a grade of failure. Carries no quality points per semester hour.

5. F—Failing student: She has failed either through lack of ability or lack of effort, or both, to justify college credit for the work done in the course. Carries -1 quality point per semester hour.

6. E—Conditioned student: She has failed by a narrow margin, but with the possibility of making a D after a few weeks of thorough review.

7. I—Incomplete work of a student: She has been delayed in completing some part of the required work of the course. When this is completed, she may receive any grade from A to F.

The President of Student Christian Association shall act as Secretary of the Board.

The President of Athletic Council shall act as Treasurer of the Board.

THE HONOR SYSTEM

Queens girls have always had the highest standards of honor in all phases of their college life. Every girl abides by the rules and regulations of her college without being forced to do so because her sense of personal honor demands it.

Each student agrees to report herself to Honor Council for any breach of conduct within 24 hours after her misdemeanor; if she fails to do this, any witness or possessor of evidence must ask her to report within the following 24 hours. If the offender does not report within the specified time, the witness or possessor of evidence must report her.

The Honor Council has the power to investigate and take action in any case involving an infraction of the regulations of the Honor System that comes under its observation, and any student found guilty by this council automatically excludes herself from the student body, or, in the case of extenuating circumstances, is suspended at the discretion of the Honor Council and the Administration of the College.

The strength and effective operation of our Student Government depends upon the loyalty and cooperation of each student. Regulations in all phases of college life are based on the three fundamentals which constitute our Honor System:

1. That each student is truthful at all times.
2. That each student respects the property of others.
3. That each student shall be entirely honest on tests, examinations, term papers, and all other pledge work.

Each student has the privilege of signing a pledge at the close of orientation week by agreeing to accept these fundamentals and to abide by and uphold the regulations of the Honor System of the Student Government Association. Any girl who does not feel that she can pledge herself to carry out these standards is out of harmony with the ideals of Queens College and is ineligible to be enrolled as a member of the student body.

THE HONOR COUNCIL

The Honor Council of Queens College shall consist of Executive Council and the presidents of each class.

FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS DURING THE YEAR

STUDENT ACTIVITY FEE

Beginning with the session 1941-42, the College has arranged to collect the Student Activity Fee for distribution among the organizations. It is included under the general college fees, $12.00 being the amount allocated for this purpose. This fee is required of all except special students, with whom it is optional. In the case of sisters, the combined fee is $19.00. In this case only one annual is issued.

A student budget has been arranged to cover most of the organizations or activities that concern the campus as a whole. Included in the above fee for a part of their support are the following: Executive Council, Student Christian Association, Athletic Association, Coronet (annual), Queens Blues (newspaper), Lecture and Concert Series, Boarding Student Association, Day Student Association, Junior Class, Sophomore Council, and Spectator Club.

Class Dues—Collected by Class Treasurer.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ACTIVITY POINT SYSTEM

This point system, adopted by the Student Government Association, is enforced to guarantee the participation of a large number of students in College activities. Limitations in the amount of work a student can carry provides for the performance and enrichment of a good program.

Students participating in extra-curricula activities must have a C average with no conditions or failures. The names of all candidates for office must be submitted to the Executive Board who will pass on their eligibility both as to points and grades. This system shall apply to all elections held in 1940-41. No student may carry more than 26 points.

Collection mail (daily except Sunday) about 6:30 a.m., and 10:00 a.m.

Delivery of mail (daily except Sunday) about 7:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon.

Students are assigned post office boxes at the beginning of the school year with no charge. Because of lack of space, two or more students occupy a box together. Day Students receive mail which is mailed to the college in boxes provided in the Day Student Building.

Since the post office is small it is necessary for the students to observe rigidly the entrances and exits during the crowded hours and to transact their business there in an orderly manner and with dispatch.

Queens College colors are light blue and dark blue, and our motto, "Non ministrari sed ministrare."

Class Colors For 1941-1942

Seniors—Light Blue and Dark Blue.
Juniors—Dark Blue and Rose.
Sophomores—Dark Blue and White.
Freshmen—Dark Blue and Yellow.

TRADITIONS

Rat Day

About a month after school opens, all Freshmen are subject to one day on which the Sophomores reign. On this day, the following action is taken:

1. A chairman for Rat Day is elected from the Sophomore Class, and she with her committee plans the day.

2. Any request made by the Sophomores during the day must be strictly obeyed by the Freshmen.

3. The Freshmen must present an entertainment for the benefit of the Sophomores on the night of Rat Day.

4. The Rat Court follows the entertainment at which time a trial is in order for all disobeying Freshmen. All Freshmen are required to attend this court.

Stunt Night

The annual inter-class stunt night is held the last Tuesday night before the Thanksgiving Holidays.

1. Each class elects by popular vote a stunt chairman and a gallery chairman.

2. After the stunt has been selected, it must be submitted to the Director of Physical Education for approval. The first chairman to submit a theme has first choice.

3. The expenses for each stunt must not exceed $5.00 which is allotted by individual classes.

4. Order and entrance of stunts shall be: Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors. The Freshman gallery shall consist of the back of the middle section; Sophomores and Seniors have their regular sections; the Juniors are entitled to the first five rows of the middle section. There are to be no decorations on the edge of the stage because of interference with other stunts.

5. The judges of the stunts are to consist of people from town chosen by Athletic Council. The stage stunt and the gallery are to be judged on the basis of 50 per cent each.

6. The class winning first place is awarded a loving cup.

SENIOR WEEK

Each year, beginning on the first Monday following the return from Spring Holidays, Senior Week is observed as a time when the Seniors receive special recognition. During this week, the Seniors don their Senior jackets, an insignia of the class. They are guests of the college at the Senior Formal Dinner on Tuesday at which time their Will, History, and Prophecy are presented to the Faculty and Student Body. Wednesday of this week is Senior Day, and the entire class is excused from all class work, and spends the day off the campus in order to discuss together what college life has meant to each girl and her hopes and ambitions for herself and Queens College. The Kiwanis Club of Charlotte entertains the Seniors at a luncheon on Thursday. The Junior Class honors the Senior Class at the Junior-Senior Banquet on Friday evening, which climaxes the week of entertainment for the Graduating Class by Administration, Faculty, and Student Body.

May Day

The annual May Day Festival is held the first Friday on the front campus.

The Queen is chosen by popular vote of the Student Body and has the privilege of choosing the maid-of-honor.

The maids of the court are selected by a committee composed of the Queen, the Presidents of each of the four classes, and a representative from each class which is elected by the respective classes. A selection of thirty-six of the best qualified girls are presented to the Student Body for the election of the required number—twenty-four.

All students of the Physical Education Department either take part in the exercise or work on Committees.

Minor expenses are paid by the Athletic Association.

Seniors wear their caps and gowns and act as ushers on May Day.

Class Recognition Day

On the afternoon preceding Commencement Exercises, the Faculty and students hold their traditional Class Recognition Exercises in front of Burwell Hall. At this time there is an academic procession, the Juniors present the daisy chain, and receive the Senior caps and gowns. The Seniors present a gift to the College. Salutatorian and Valedictorian addresses are also delivered at this service.

An outstanding part of the exercises is the changing of class colors. At Queens College, only the Seniors are privileged to use as class colors Light Blue and Dark Blue, the colors of their Alma Mater. Dark Blue features in the colors of each class, and each class retains the Blue of her Freshman year throughout the four years of college. Rose is traditionally the other color for the Junior Class; White for the Sophomore Class, and Yellow for the Freshman Class. These three colors are changed at Class Recognition Exercises, with the Seniors passing to the Juniors and leaving for the incoming Freshman the same shade of Blue —that being the shade that is not a part of the Junior colors—and returning to the College the other Blue in the Senior colors.

Juniors serve at the Alumnae Banquet.

The Senior Class always leaves some gift to the College.

The Junior Class is required to remain on campus during Commencement Week.

COLLEGE SONGS AND YELLS

We urge every new girl to learn these songs and yells as soon as possible so she may be able to enter into the "Queens Spirit" as soon as she arrives on the campus.

Alma Mater

I

Deep within the waving forest,
Far from bustling town,
Stands our noble Alma Mater;
Proudly looks she down.

Chorus:

Sing her praises, lift her chorus
Over hill and dale!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
Hail, Queens College, hail.

II

Deep among the fragrant pine trees
Is our College true,
There our noble Alma Mater
Proudly stands in view.

Our Mother and Our Queen

I

Oh time of happiness and youth,
Of joyful consecration,
Of holy zeal for faith and truth,
And love-born inspiration
When earth is clad in vernal hue,
The skies in golden sheen—
We raise our hymn of joy to you,
Our Mother and our Queen.

II

You lead from life's uncertain dawn
To glorious days your daughters,
In golden pictures you have drawn
The floods of living waters.
And round thy banner, Blue and Blue,
A faithful host is seen,
True to their honor, true to you,
Our Mother and our Queen.

III

Though roseclad hope may open wide
The future's golden portal,
And love shall crown—a happy bride—
Our brows with wreaths immortal;
Though all our dreams are coming true,
Yet naught our hearts can wean,
Nor turn our grateful thoughts from you,
Our Mother and our Queen.

IV

To grief and joy—as years go past—
Points fate's unerring finger;
But changeless shall, while life will last,
Your blessings with us linger,
Unfaltering love, like morning dew,
Shall keep your memory green—
Our lodestar bright, we gaze on you—
Our Mother and our Queen.

Dear Q.-C.

Dear Q.-C., we'll be loyal and true,
To the end we will fight just for you.
We'll play fair, we'll play square all the while,
And we'll take each defeat with a smile.
If we win you may count on the Blues
To be friendly with those who lose;
We will stand by our school to the end,
And we'll always be her truest, bluest friend.

Make way and hail, here comes the Q.-C. girls,
Pouring their dauntless spirit forth in song,
Wake up girls and answer the call,
Queens girls will lead them all.

We've got the grit that's gonna pull us through,
And all the pep that we will show to you,
We'll go forth and face the world today,
Q.-C., Q.-C., Q.-C.

Q.-C., Q.-C., you're a wonder,
And when you are old and grey
We will all say yes by thunder,
You were some school in our day.

Our Loyal Allegiance

Our loyal allegiance
Dear Mother Queen, we sing,
And ever thy praises throughout the ages will ring.

Always we'll honor, protect, and cherish
That which thou standeth for;
Be ever our true guide
Throughout eternity;
Our steps shall not falter;
All hail, Alma Mater, to thee!

With thy queenly manner,
Direct us in thy way
To be sincere, just, and constant to obey,
Loyally striving, faithfully seeking,
To mould our lives by thine.
Give us through thy guidance
Brave hearts to do for thee
Our noblest endeavor;
All hail, Alma Mater, to thee!

Jane Montgomery and Elizabeth Isaacs, '42.

Radio Hymn

I

With reverent love we sing to thee,
Our hearts o'er flow with loyal praise.
Our Alma Mater ever be
Our guard and shield of college days.
Let echoes of thy spirit ring
As through the years thy song we sing.

II

Thy guiding standards lead us on
To paths of wisdom, faith, and truth;
Bequeathed to us by daughters gone,
And giving strength to present youth,
Our glorious hymn of love we raise
To sing our Alma Mater's praise.

—Henrietta McIver, '40.

QUEENS COLLEGE HYMN

We Would Be Building

We would be building; temples still undone
O'er crumbling walls their crosses scarcely lift;
Waiting till love can raise the broken stone,
And hearts creative bridge the human rift;
We would be building, Master, let Thy plan
Reveal the life that God would give to man.

Teach us to build; upon the solid rock
We set the dream that hardens into deed,
Ribbed with the steel that time and change doth mock,
Th' unfailing purpose of our noblest creed;
Teach us to build; O Master, lend us sight
To see the towers gleaming in the light.

O keep us building, Master; may our hands
Ne'er falter when the dream is in our hearts,
When to our ears there come divine commands
And all the pride of sinful will departs;
We build with Thee, O grant enduring worth
Until the heav'nly Kingdom comes on earth.—AMEN.
